

Implementation of the North Carolina Read to Achieve Program Parent Guide 2017-2018

North Carolina Read to Achieve

Goal of Legislation

- All students proficient readers by the end of third grade.
- Gives students multiple opportunities to show proficiency
- Gives extra support to third and fourth grade students

Reading in K-3

- Core of all instruction
- Foundational reading skills build deeper comprehension skills and success in other content areas

mClass Reading 3D

- Teachers understand reading skill development and levels
- Design instruction
- NOT tests
- Listening to child read from books and one-minute skill tasks
- Home Connect letter

Reading At or Above Proficiency

- Continue to progress in reading proficiency
- Read, comprehend, integrate, and apply complex texts needed for secondary education and career success
- Become an independent reader

Beginning-of-Grade (BOG) End-of-Grade (EOG)

- Measures progress on standards
- BOG for reading only
- Indication if student on track
- Scores range Level 1 (the lowest) to Level 5 (the highest).
- EOG – reading and math
- Multiple-choice tests
- Read selections and answer questions

Non-Promotion

- Score at Level 1 or 2 in reading
- Good cause exemption – identified in law
- Notification in writing

Good Cause Exemptions

- Limited English Proficient students (less than 2 school years of English instruction)
- Students with IEPs that include alternate assessments and reading interventions
- Proficiency on an alternate assessments that include: Reading 3D Level P, STAR reading scale score 537, i-Ready Diagnostic scale score of 537, Imagine Learning score 725, and Read to Achieve test after EOG or summer reading camp
- Proficiency through a reading portfolio
- Previously retained more than once

End of Third Grade

Process of Retention

NC Read to Achieve

- Successful Reading Development for Students without a Good Cause Exemption
 - Summer reading camps
 - Teacher: positive student outcomes in reading
 - 3/4 Transition class
 - Accelerated class
 - Mid-year promotion

Why?

- Early identification and early intervention for struggling students
- Reduce need for remedial classes in middle and high schools
- Increase graduation rate
- All students college and career ready at graduation
- Proactive and offer multiple and intensive opportunities

Speedboat vs. Oil Tanker

You do an intervention with a second grader, you're changing direction on a speedboat, but when you do an intervention with a fifth grader, you're changing direction on an oil tanker.
